

PBWC Sacramento Community Event

Tuesday November 8, 2011, 5:30 p.m.

Sponsored by:

Professional Women Taking Care of Business: An Investment and Estate Planning Discussion

Guest Speakers Laura Russell-Jones and Gina Lera, Esq.

Women in the United States continue to gain economic strength and independence and, with that, are becoming an influential financial force in the market. Yet, we continue to face unique challenges and lack investment confidence that can impact our ability to have a secure retirement and financial future. This presentation will help you get on the right track NOW so that you can approach your future knowing that you've planned well, whatever life may bring.

Location: Intel Corporation, 1900 Prairie City Road, FM7 Lobby, Folsom, CA 95630

Cost: $49 non-members, $39 members

Register today at: www.pbwc.org/events-seminars/communityevents

Laura Russell-Jones, Financial Advisor, Wells Fargo Advisors, LLC. Laura specializes in providing professional financial guidance to women, helping them to become more informed, financially independent and positive about their investments and retirement future. She assists investors with their wealth management needs, including investment consulting, retirement planning, corporate services and college savings plans. (Wells Fargo Advisors is not a tax or legal advisor.)

Gina L. Lera, Esq., Partner, Downey Brand LLP. Gina is a partner in Downey Brand's Trust and Estate practice group and is a Certified Specialist in Estate Planning, Trust and Probate Law by the State Bar of California Board of Legal Specialization. Her expertise includes wills, trusts, powers of attorney, simple and sophisticated irrevocable trusts, entity formation, and charitable planning.